ARTS in the middle
Celebrating Arts in the Middle Peninsula

Arts in the Middle, a juried fine arts show in Urbanna, VA seeks qualified teen artists to participate in this year's show, June 3-4.

Have you ever dreamed of displaying or selling your art? Now is the time to try it out. All finished works of art in most media will qualify with the approval of your art teacher or art mentor.

Do you have a finished work of art that you have worked on all year, or are you just beginning a new piece? Get it reviewed by your teacher/mentor and ready to submit by May 1. All you need to do is fill out the one page application on the back of this flyer and submit it along with a photo of your work by that date. That's it! You're in.

Check out these other benefits from participating in the show:

- Compete for the "Best in Show" student award - $100 cash prize in 2016!
- Interact with accomplished artists who share your creative interests
- Learn what it's like to show your work in a booth
- Assist other artists with their booth, covering for breaks, or helping with set up and sales
- Receive special recognition at the awards ceremony

Put the finishing touches on your masterpiece and see it displayed at the festival!

We ask all student artists to volunteer at least two hours of their time during the show or at setup/take down.

Once your application is received, additional information about the show will be sent to you.
Please direct all questions to Cathy Slider at students@artsinthemiddle.com.

Deadline for submission is May 1, 2017
